TWO FOR THE YANKS

a BOSTON, August 14.—The Yanks made it two in a row to-day, downing the Red Sox, 7 to 5, in a game marked by a lot of hard hitting and some poor fleiding by the Carrigans.

The Red Sox looked like winners at the start, when they pushed over four the start, when they pushed over four who opened, went wild, and before Collins relieved him the Ranks had three runs in. They added four in the fifth off Collins and sewed matters up.

Bedient finished up for Boston, while Cole, who was pushed in in the second after Brown and Keating had been yanked, saw the New Yorkers through to the finish. The score:

HUSSANE PREDICTS THAT HE WILL WIN

Feels Certain That Lenis Will Go Down to Defeat in Next Tuesday's Match. Quite a lot of interest is being taken in the wrestling bout between Hussane and Lewis, which will take place next Tuesday night at Broad Street

In Face of Defeat He Smiles

In spite of the fact that he has lost many games because of hard luck, and many more because of the batting weakness behind him, Walter Johnson, the premier pitcher of the Washington club, does not seem to be the least bit affected thereby. After each defeat he comes up smiling. The twirler says he realizes that the fates have tacked the Indian sign on him, said that he does not propose to worry much about it. The other Washington players cannot be said to share his cheerfulness, however. They feel that they are not doing what they should to help along Johnson's splendid pitching.

LINER SIGHTED AT SEA

Louson Action of the Main Attracts Aftention.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., August 14.—Captain Watson, of the British steamer Marchieness of Bute, which arrived here last night, reports speaking the North German Lioyd liner Main, long overdue from Bremen to Baltimore, with a large passenger list, on the night of August 8. Captain Watson, who did not know of the declaration of war, was attracted by the unusual actions of the liner. He spoke her, and was told the vessel was the Main. When he asked, "Where bound?" the lights on the liner were suddenly doused, and she made off with great speed, changing her course.

NORDICA WILL FILED

Nearly Entire Estate Bequeathed to Her Three Sisters.

NEW YORK, August 11.—A copy of the will of Linian Nordica, the singer, who died in Java last May, filed to-day provides that her entire estate, value not stated, except for bequesta aggregating $36,000, be divided among her three sisters. To E. Romayne Simmons, described as "having been with me for sixteen years," is bequeathed $36,000.

A petition by one of the executors, states that George W. Young, Madame Nordica's husband, declined to file the original will. The petition prays that he be forced to do so.

"In the distribution of my property," reads the will, "I am not forgetful of my husband, George w. Young, to whom I have advanced over $400,000 in eash, which I estimate as his full or more than full share to which he might be entitled in my estate. It is, however, my desire that my husband, George W. Young, shall receive his legal portion."
